THE CHRISTOPHER AND CARL GUSTAF GET FIVE STARS

Classified until now as four-star luxury hotels, both the Christopher and Carl Gustaf have added a fifth star. The Collectivity's executive committee agreed to the request by these two hotels, and awarded their extra stars during a meeting on July 6, after receiving a thumbs up from the territorial tourism commission on June 15. The Christopher and Carl Gustaf join Le Toiny and Isle de France, which received their fifth stars last March, in the pantheon of top-rated hotels in Saint Barthélemy.

The new five-star rating in Saint-Barthélemy is the result of the Novelli law adopted in France in 2009, and amendments made to the local tourism code. Institutionally, the territorial tourism commission is in charge of awarded the hotels' stars. "We are very proud," enthuses Marion Fayard, director of the Carl Gustaf. "This fifth star represented a huge challenge for us. We worked very hard to obtain it." For Pierre-Alexandre Maillard, manager of the Christopher, "The winning of this fifth star is the successful realization of the major investments made over the past three years by the Pitch Promotion group." The Pointe Milou hotel recently renovated all of its rooms, as well as its two restaurants, the swimming pool, and pool deck. It has also added a seaside spa and fitness room, plus four new suites. "This fifth star is also great encouragement for the staff to continue to guarantee that the hotel meets with the success it deserves," adds Maillard.

ST BARTH SUMMER SESSIONS: MUSIC EVERYWHERE!

Once again this year, the association St Barth Rocks has organized the St Barth Summer Sessions, an eclectic music festival with artists from around the world. From August 4-15, the stars on the festival roster include DJs from the German collective Jazzanova, as well as Anduze, Arturo Rodriguez, David H, Tom Howie, and Jimmy Vallance (who has a record coming out on the label, Get Physical), plus Josh Logan, Ryan Fardy, Adam Lasher Band, Alex Merrell, Yo-One Sutter, Eitch from New York, and representatives of the Brazilian scene with Aberto Pra Balanço and Alvaro Kapaz. Every night there will be a concert at La Plage, while other events are scheduled at various hotels that are participating in the St Barth Summer Sessions: Christopher Hotel, Le Sereno, Taiwan, Isle de France, and Le Village St Jean, plus the restaurants Bonito, La Route des Boucaniers, L'Esprit, Le Piment, and La Cantina.

EITCH

New York singer Eitch (pronounced H) has a style evoking that of Björk: a unique universe that playfully fuses a hybrid of vocally driven alternative music. Her album, "Everything, Nothing," follows an electro-pop vein with certain songs that recall popular Canadian singer Grimes. But Eitch brings a totally personal style to her music. A special treat!

ANDUZE

Originally from the American Virgin Islands, Anduze is a soul singer following in the footsteps of such stars as Marvin Gaye, Curtis Mayfield, or Otis Redding. Anduze is accompanied on stage by a guitar, bass, drums, and sax. His most recent album, Closure, expresses the throes of a dramatic love affair.

EMILY ELBERT

Steeped in folk music that evokes the open plains of her native Texas, 23 year-old Emily Elbert started singing, composing, and playing the guitar at the age of 14. She has performed around the world, and her latest album, "Alive, In Love," came out last February.

JAZZANOVA

One of the highlights of the program: known for their "nu-jazz," the German DJs from the elective collective, Jazzanova, have spent over 15 years mixing, remixing, and producing for the independent labels, Compost Records and Sonar Kollektiv, with their compelling compositions shaping the musical scene on an international basis. Not to be missed!

EL CUERPO DEL RITMO

This latest project created by DJ/producer Arturo Rodriguez features electronic music Spanish-style. These numbers make you want to dance, accompanied by a guitarist and a percussionist to reinforce the rhythms and add an ethnic touch. Hot, Hot, hot!

TOM HOWIE

Canadian-born Tom Howie is a guitarist and songwriter in his early 20s, whose soaring vocals and songwriting talents have drawn comparisons to Jeff Buckley and Thom Yorke. Last November, he released his third solo album, The Right and Wrong of Everything, mixed by producer Ashwin Sood. Howie is also a graduate of the Berklee College of Music, and currently lives in New York City.

RYAN FARDY

Ryan has played to crowds all over New England and the United States from Las Vegas to California and Florida, as well as Canada. He has opened for the legendary Chaka Khan, Leon Russell, Edgar Winter, Mountain, Snoop Dogg, Rick Derringer, Hoobastank, and others. A graduate of the Berklee College of Music, he is a BMI recording artist.

ADAM LASHER BAND

Adam Lasher is a fabulous guitar player... who happens to also be the nephew of Carlos Santana! His talent sets him apart from the other musicians of his generation in Los Angeles, where he often performs.

5TH EDITION OF SAINT BARTH TENNIS CLUB OPEN: YOUR SERVE!

singles final will take place on Wednesday, August 15, followed by the awards ceremony. This is an official tournament, which means that all players must belong to a tennis club and provide a medical certificate.

For additional information, contact Yves Lacoste at 05 90 27 79 81 or via email: stbarhtc@orange.fr

The tennis courts in Saint Jean host the action of the 5th Edition of Saint Barth Tennis Club Open, August 4-15, with as many as 100 players expected. "We are hoping for participation by residents as well as our friends who are visiting the island during their summer vacation," notes Yves Lacoste, sports director of the SBTC. This year there will be several top players, both men and women, from France and Guadeloupe on the roster. Tournament participants will play in six categories: men's singles, women's singles, under 15 years, veterans, men's doubles, and mixed doubles. The pools will be selected on Saturday, August 19 at the tennis clubhouse in St Jean. The men's

A GALA SOIREE TO ELECT MISS SAINT BARTH 2012-2013

Who is the most beautiful young lady in Saint Barthélemy? That will be decided during a gala soirée on Saturday, August 11 in Gustavia, with the election of Miss Saint Barth 2012-2013. Organized by the Miss Saint Barth Association, whose president is Stéphane Lanson, this soirée takes place on the Quai Général de Gaulle. Seven candidates will appear in various outfits, on a stage set up for the occasion, with a jury judging their style, their smiles, and even their elocution. The lucky young lady elected on August 11 will compete in the next Miss Prestige

National beauty pageant, run by Geneviève de Fontenay, a famous model in the 1950s and style setter in France for several decades. Christiane Lillio, the current president of the Miss Prestige National committee, and Christelle Roca, Miss Prestige National 2012, will attend the event in Saint Barth, along with Tiffany Lédée, the reigning Miss Saint-Barth 2010-2011. This elegant evening will culminate with a gala dinner on the dock.

WANT TO SAIL IN SAINT BARTH?

Perhaps you are looking for a boat to sail on, or have a boat and need crew for a regatta? Now you can turn to the Lil'E Saint Barth Sailing School to help meet your needs. "You can sail alone for your pleasure. But to participate in a regatta, you need a real crew. And often enough, you can be short a few sailors. Or after the end of the regatta that you find out there were people who would have liked to participate, but they didn't let you know," explains Mowgli Fox, director of the Lil'E Saint Barth Sailing School. Fox's new program, which also exists elsewhere, allows you to post advance notice of your needs, as a sailor or a skipper, via the website:

www.lilestbarth.com, under "Bourse aux équipiers." Those who are looking to sail on a boat can post their qualifications and any race wins, as well as what regattas they are interested in and the dates they are available, from actual races to casual sailing, and the position they hold, from helmsman to tactician. "The program is also open to beginners," adds Fox. "If you are a novice, there is always a chance to earn your sea legs," he notes. To be contacted, candidates should post their email address or telephone number. For those who have a boat and are seeking crew, it is possible to post an announcement listing the kind of sailors that are required.

ST BARTH FAMILY FESTIVAL HEATS UP

ties wind things down on Friday and Saturday nights, August 24 and 25.

At the Yacht Club, acclaimed DJs take turns spinning music for the dance floor:

Moody Mike, DJ Willer, Andy Myler, Cut Killer, DJ Will, DJ Mister T, DJ Outkast, Greg Baker, and DJ Eyedol are among those starring at the turntables. Dancing shoes required.

More fun can be had at the St Barth Family Festival's annual Pool Party that rocks the Guanahani Hotel & Spa, on Saturday, August 5, with DJ Niki Belucci in appropriate poolside attire to get the crowd up and dancing. Two Garden Parties are also on the program, on Sunday August 12 and 19, at the Tamarin in Saline where the order of the day is a chill-out barbeque: the first features Claude Challe; the second in the hands of the Ti St Barth resident DJs Ben, Frank N, and Jeremix. Get ready to party!

One of the hottest events of the summer is the fourth annual St Barth Family Festival, organized by Carole Gruson. The action takes place all month at Gruson's hip nightspots, the Yacht Club in Gustavia and Ti St Barth in Pointe Milou, before they close for vacation in September. At the "Ti," there is something happening every night throughout this month-long festival, until two closing par-
